

Church “Quire”

‘Quire’
(sounds like ‘choir’) means:

1. In a church,
the area at the front
of a church sanctuary
between choir seats
and congregation seats

and

2. to a printer,
24 sheets of paper,
compared to a ‘ream’
of 500 sheets

What if we didn’t have
a full church choir,
but a regular chance to sing in a choral group?

What if we didn’t have
reams of music to read,
but enough to learn and sing in one Sunday morning?

You Like to Sing

You know you do!

- ✓ You sing out in church,
- ✓ You sing in the shower,
- ✓ You sing in the car

You sang in choirs before!

- ✓ You sang at school
- ✓ You sang in church
- ✓ You sang with friends

You remember if you are:

- ✓ soprano
- ✓ alto,
- ✓ tenor or
- ✓ bass

But... So...

You're not always here on Sundays

You can't come to weekly choir practices

You don't like all church music

You don't read music or at least sight-read it

You may be too good for this or not good enough for it...

Come to Quire!

Yes, you are welcome!
Try it some Sunday!

Need to know more?
Ask 'Bill 1' or 'Bill 2'

Invite a friend to come,
To try it with you

Bring your own ideas
Try others' ideas out!
